DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed March 16, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In page 6, applicant states that, in the interest of advancing the prosecution, applicant has amended independent claims 1 and 6 to replace the term "on-screen displays" with the term "menus" and support for this amendment can be found, for example, on FIG. 1.

In response, the examiner respectfully disagrees. It is noted claims 1 and 6 have been amended to "selecting a language by entering a single selection on the on-screen display, wherein after the selection, the menus are displayed in the selected language and the audio programs are broadcast on the receiver in the selected language". FIG. 1 and its respective disclosure of this application teaches a plurality of menus 10 from an on-screen display for an existing television receiver, including a menu 12 for selecting the language in which a particular feature is to be displayed and the on-screen display for the receiver requires that a user select the language in which a feature is to be displayed on-screen or broadcast by making a separate selection for each available feature. However, FIG. 1 and its respective disclosure does not provide support for the claimed feature "wherein after the selection, the menus are displayed in the selected language and the audio programs are broadcast on the receiver in the selected language" as recited in the amended claims 1 and 6.

Amendment

2. The amendment filed March 16, 2006 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132(a) because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132(a) states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows:

“selecting a language by entering a single selection on the on-screen display, wherein after the selection, the menus are displayed in the selected language and the audio programs are broadcast on the receiver in the selected language” as recited in claims 1 and 6.

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The claimed “selecting a language by entering a single selection on the on-screen display, wherein after the selection, the menus are displayed in the selected language and the audio programs are broadcast on the receiver in the selected language” as recited in claims 1 and 6 was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor, at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. As discussed above, FIG. 1 and its respective disclosure does not provide support for the now claimed “selecting a language by entering a single selection on the on-screen display, wherein after the selection, the menus are displayed in the selected language and the audio programs are broadcast on the receiver in the selected language” of claims 1 and 6 in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor, at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
